Matthew 5:38-42

This morning we got to hear from Kory Cassel, a teaching pastor from our Waters Edge family of churches. In Matthew 5, Jesus preached a sermon on the monarchy and painted a picture of what it looks like to live in the Kingdom of God. Here, Jesus challenges us to “GoTwo”.

Digging Deeper

- In the text above, Jesus offers a picture of life in the Kingdom of God. What stands out to you from your reading of the text and from Sunday’s message? Which part feels the most challenging?
- What are some areas in your life where something is required of you? And what does it look like to “GoTwo” in those areas?
- Kory closed with a question: If everyone at TLC served like I serve, gave like I give, and invited like I invite? What kind of response did this create for you? Share with your group.
