

Hope Has a Hype Man

December 4, 2022

Luke 3:1-18

What gets you hype for the Christmas season? John the Baptist is the hype man for Jesus coming. In Luke 3:1-18, John the Baptist preached a message to make way for Jesus the coming King by smoothing and straightening out the path for Jesus. If we are going to be prepared for the arrival of the King, there are things that need to be leveled out in our hearts. In order to do this, we need to rely and obey to make way for King Jesus.

Getting Started

Digging Deeper

- This is the gospel: You are more wicked than you ever dared believe. But you are more loved and accepted than you could ever dare hope.

We took time to reflect on the first sentence of that quote Sunday morning. When you think about your sin, how does that first part of the statement make you feel?

- “Repentance is not changing your behaviors, it’s changing your heart.”

Does this differ from your typical understanding of repentance? Take time to reflect and discuss this quote.

- What are the mountains that need to come down and be flattened in your heart to make way for Jesus?
