John 14:1-12

On Sunday we wrapped our I Am series by looking at the “I am” statement that Jesus makes in John 14. This is hours before his betrayal, arrest and crucifixion. He utters these words to comfort his disciples and assure them of his identity. His words were as earth-shattering then as they are today.

Getting Started

When asked to imagine the scenario of explaining Jesus to someone, what were some of the thoughts and feelings that went running through your head and heart?

Digging Deeper

- From the text above, what does this statement say about Jesus? What is Jesus inviting us into with this statement?
- Jesus does not show us the way to the Father; rather, Jesus is the way to the Father. How does this stand in relation to our cultures idea that different religions are different trails up the same mountain?
- We wrapped up Sunday’s message by looking at a tool that helps us share the truth of who Jesus is, what he came to do, and why he’s such good news with God’s word rather than our own. What did you think of this? How might you envision using this in the future?
- As this series comes to a close and we reflect on the 7 “I Am” statements from Jesus, is there one that stands out to you? Any specific way that you sensed God speaking to you during this time and through those statements. Reflect and share as a group.
