

Gospel: How do we Proclaim it?

May 22, 2022

Luke 7:33-50

This morning we wrapped our Gospel series. There are two people that we need to proclaim the gospel to: ourselves, and others. Jesus proclaimed the gospel to others in a myriad of ways. One of the most common ways was over a meal. In fact, it has been said that Jesus “ate his way through the gospels.” When people came to Jesus, he led with truth. When Jesus came to people, he led with grace.

Getting Started

On Sunday we talked about the importance of meals and the opportunity that meals provide to invite others into our lives. What is the best meal that you have ever eaten? Or if you can't think of that, what's your favorite meal to eat/cook?

Digging Deeper

- In the text above, Jesus offers a picture of the gospel. His life and his presence is good news to a woman in need of healing and redemption. How does this text and the teaching from Sunday change the way you think about “sharing the gospel of Jesus” with others in your life?
- What has been the biggest takeaway for you when you reflect on this gospel series as a whole? Has God revealed anything to you specific? What will stick with you?
- We closed our time by being challenged to identify three ways that we can practice hospitality. What are some of your three?
