

James: Doers of the Word

October 16, 2022

James 1:19-27

This morning we continued our series in the letter of James: All up in your Business. James compares God's word to a mirror: intended to reveal and remind things that help us live a more consistent life with that of Jesus.

Getting Started

What's the most most embarrassing outfit or look that you've walked out of your house with on accident (or on purpose 🤪)?

Read

James 1:19-27

Digging Deeper

- The text above makes it clear: we should be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to become angry. Of these three instructions, which feels most needed in your heart and life?
- The end of this passage speaks to the responsibility of God's people to fight against systemic injustices and care for the marginalized. Are there any systems that keep people in situations of poverty that you have first-hand experience with? Any that you have questions about? Are there any that you are passionate about engaging in?
  - As we discuss this, remember James first instruction: quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to become angry.
- God's word is intended to be a mirror. In what ways did Sunday's message, and this text serve as a mirror for you? What is it revealing or reminding of for you?
- Did you take the mirror challenge (every minute spent looking at the mirror, spend reading James)? How has it gone?
