

In Our Veins: Lone Wolves Die

May 7, 2023

Genesis 1:24-27

This past Sunday we wrapped up our values series, In Our Veins by looking at our value Lone Wolves Die. We believe that we are designed to be in community where we can be cared for, celebrated and challenged. As Jordan explained, we were created for relationship because we were created out of relationship.

Getting Started

Jordan began the message sharing some things that he is passionate about. Spend some time going around and listing off a few of the things each person in your group is passionate about. Use this time as a chance to share more of your passions with one another!

Digging Deeper

- Of the four “spaces” (public, social, personal and intimate) listed and taught through on the handout from Sunday, which do you feel most fulfilled by?
- Of the four “spaces” listed and taught through on the handout from Sunday, which do you feel most lacking and in need of?
- Jordan talked through five tips for pursuing community in our “personal” space: (1) proximity, (2) transparency, (3) accountability, (4) similarity, (5) consistency. Which of these do you sense is a needed next step for you in your ongoing pursuit of biblical community?
